

Patient Clinical Data Collection User Stories

User Story 1

As a lab assistant, I want to view all the patient records

Acceptance Criteria:

- Display all the patients details with their id.firstName.lastName and age
- Display the link to enter clinical data for each patient
- Display the link to analyze data for each patient
- Display the link to register new patients

User Story 2

As a lab assistant, I want to register a new patient

Acceptance Criteria:

- On Click of the Add Patient link the user should be navigated to the patient registration screen
- The user should see a form that he can fill in with patient details namely firstName.lastName and age
- When the use click the confirm button the data should be saved and a confirmation message should be displayed
- The use should be able to navigate back to the home page

User Story 3

As a lab assistant, I want to enter clinical data for a patient

Acceptance Criteria:

- On Click of the Add Data link on the home page the user should be navigated to the clinical data entry screen
- The user should see a form that he can fill in with patient details such as bp or height and weight or heart rate
- When the use click the confirm button the data should be saved and a confirmation message should be displayed
- The use should be able to navigate back to the home page

User Story 4

As a lab assistant, I want to analyse and see a report of the latest tests

Acceptance Criteria:

- On Click of the Analyze Data link on the home page the user should be navigated to page where he can see the latest entries for various clinical data
- The Body Mass Index should be displayed based on height and weight of the patient
- The user should see a link to a graph that will show the clinical reading on a Line chart over time